Due on April 10, 2018 by 11:59 PM, PST

Specification/Criteria

- 2 pages maximum.
- 12-point font
- 1 inch margin
- Double-spaced

Please select one of the following Values/Focuses of your Personal Statement:

Research

- Students who choose this option should demonstrate dedication to research. These students should appreciate the science of social work and value the implications for practice across settings and systems. Contribution to research can be from past or present, but must be outside of your classes and field placement.

Humanitarianism

- Students who choose this option should demonstrate dedication and exemplary leadership in human welfare. Involvement can be from the past, present, or plans made for the future. These students should relate how their commitment to philanthropy connects with core social work values, such as social justice and advocacy. Commitment to philanthropy should be outside of field placement. Field placement must not be the only commitment to philanthropy, if this focus is chosen

Professional Development

- Students who choose this option should demonstrate great efforts to strive towards professionalism by obtaining or enforcing useful skills in the field. These students should also demonstrate an active effort toward career development outside of classes.

Efforts and demonstrations of professional development must be outside of field placement.

Prompt

Phi Alpha Honor Society upholds the three values of Research, Humanitarianism and Professional Development to the field of social work. Members of the Omicron, Epsilon Chapter have showcased a commitment to carrying these values in and out of their current field placements.

Discuss your most meaningful achievements and how you demonstrated one of the three values you have chosen to focus on, in the field of social work. Mention what inspires you to carry on with your focus, in the field. Lastly, describe how or in what ways do you plan to integrate your focus in the future.

Please remember to email your personal statement, scholarship application and two letters of recommendation to: phialpha@usc.edu

We look forward to reading your applications, Trojans. Best of luck and FIGHT ON!

Sincerely,
Your 2017-18 Executive Board
